PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Amanda Perach focuses her practice on bankruptcy-related matters, strategically representing a wide spectrum of debtors, creditors (including committee representation), and other parties of interest in commercial bankruptcy proceedings. She is an analytical professional with extensive experience working on a variety of complex matters such as relief from automatic stay, relief from property turnover, priority of rights and fraudulent transfers. As a skilled commercial litigator, she works aggressively on behalf of her clients, handling disputes such as breach of contract and breach of fiduciary duty.

Ms. Perach received her B.A. in Psychology from the University of California, San Diego in 2007, and she received her J.D. from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas William S. Boyd School of Law, graduating magna cum laude. During law school, Ms. Perach was a member of the dean's list and received six CALI Awards for academic excellence. Ms. Perach currently serves as President Elect of the Federal Bar Association for the Nevada District and is actively involved as a member of the Junior League of Las Vegas. She was named a 2016 Rising Star, as well as a 2016 Best Lawyer (Appellate).

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

- Represented multiple companies including, charter airline company, owner of condominium complex and publically-traded financial data reporting company, in achieving successful reorganization under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.
- Represented various creditors, including financial institutions and landlords, in obtaining relief from the automatic stay, filing proof of claims and procuring related relief in the bankruptcy forum.
- Defended a publically-traded corporation from securities fraud claims. The case was dismissed with prejudice and judgment was entered in favor of the defendant by the U.S. District Court for the District of Nevada.
