PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Robert Armstrong is nationally recognized for his representation of high-net-worth clients and family trust companies. His practice is focused on estate, gift, generation skipping, and income tax planning, as well as the administration of trusts and estates, business and real estate transactions and the formation, operation and governance of family trust and retail trust companies. He also has extensive experience in the area of charitable giving, tax-exempt organizations and state and local taxation, including the Nevada Commerce Tax.

Mr. Armstrong is the chair of the Business Entities & Transactions Group of McDonald Carano, as well as a member of the Trust & Estates, Tax Law and Real Estate & Land Use Planning practice groups. He has more than forty years of legal experience serving clients as an attorney, and as a non-practicing certified public accountant.

Mr. Armstrong is frequently called upon to lecture on topics such as Nevada trust law, family trust companies and tax matters at national and local seminars and forums. He serves on the Trust & Estates Section Legislative Committee of the Nevada State Bar where he is involved in the ongoing modernization of Nevada trust laws.

Mr. Armstrong is a fourth generation Nevadan, with family roots going back to Virginia City's Comstock Lode, and is very active in community and philanthropic endeavors.
