PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Pat Lundvall is a highly skilled litigator who serves as a Co-Chair of the Commercial & Complex Litigation practice group with McDonald Carano. She represents Fortune 500 companies as their primary outside counsel and Nevada businesses in every phase of complex commercial litigation, from pleading and motion practice through discovery, settlement, trial and appeal. A market leader with a strong reputation, Pat offers a clear choice to clients when diversity is important – and diversity is always important in litigation.

Pat has successfully represented clients in judge and jury trials in state and federal courts, as well as on appeal to the Nevada Supreme Court, the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals and the U.S. Supreme Court. She also acts as local counsel and coordinating counsel in complex multidistrict litigation, responsible for substantive contributions to the successful resolution of these sophisticated matters. She is well known for handling complex business disputes and the substantive claims common to those disputes with her trademark strategic, tenacious and aggressive litigation style.

“She is a zealous advocate” and an “excellent litigator.”

– Chambers USA 2021

“She provides a clear understanding of the legal process every step of the way. She is extremely knowledgeable and an expert in her field.”

– Chambers USA 2020

Pat is particularly experienced in handling complex business disputes and the substantive claims those disputes typically raise, including: breach of contract, interference with contract, business entity disputes and dissolutions, shareholder derivative claims, fraud including government fraud, conversion, invasion of privacy, bad faith, unfair trade practices, unfair competition, Lanham Act, RICO and antitrust violations, among others. She also represents clients in matters involving employment law, defamation, deprivation of constitutional rights, and wrongful death.

Over the past two decades, her clients have included publicly traded companies, public/government bodies, and public figures, pharmaceutical manufacturers, fintech enterprises, healthtech providers, data centers and data analytics companies, sports’ governing bodies, homebuilders, broadcasters, e-commerce companies and more all turn to Pat when the stakes are high.
