Prior to becoming a private practice gaming attorney, Mr. Giordano first served as a Deputy Nevada Attorney General representing the Nevada Gaming Control Board and Nevada Gaming Commission, and then served, for four years, as the Chief of the Corporate Securities Division of the NGCB. In that position, he oversaw licensing investigations, analysis and monitoring of publicly traded corporations associated with Nevada gaming licensees. These included mergers and acquisitions, public and private financings, and compliance activities of business operations of publicly traded corporations and their subsidiaries. He also supervised investigations for approvals and the subsequent monitoring of all gaming activities conducted outside the State of Nevada by Nevada gaming licensees, including multiple investigations conducted in foreign countries.

Mr. Giordano has decades of unmatched expertise in the details of Nevada gaming law and related licensing and regulatory procedures. At the December 2025 Gaming Law Conference hosted by the Gaming Law Section of the State Bar of Nevada, Greg received a certificate of appreciation for 18 years of service to the Gaming Law Section. Greg became a member of the Executive Committee of the Gaming Law Section in 2007 and served as Vice-Chair from 2009 to 2025. Greg's contributions to the gaming community include serving as Chief Editor of the Nevada Gaming Law Practice and Procedure Manual and Co-Editor of Nevada Gaming Lawyer, both published by the Gaming Law Section. Greg has also served as a member of the Gaming Law Advisory Board of UNLV William S. Boyd School of Law and a member of the Editorial Board Advisory Committee for UNLV Gaming Law Journal.

Mr. Giordano's clients include gaming companies, financial institutions doing business with gaming companies, institutional investors and lenders from around the world, underwriters of gaming business leveraged buyouts and acquisition financings, lenders finding their loans to gaming companies requiring appointment of receivers or assistance in bankruptcy, and vendors to gaming companies having to address compliance obligations and licensing or gaming related approval issues. Mr. Giordano is a member of Gaming Compliance Committees of U.S. and international gaming companies, and also serves as Special Counsel to and Chairman of these Committees.

Mr. Giordano is highly ranked in Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business in Gaming & Licensing Law in the geographic areas of both Nevada and USA-Nationwide. Clients describe Mr. Giordano to Chambers researchers as "a great subject matter expert." "Greg knows the regulators and how to get questions answered and give us the best advice on how to respond and be compliant."
