Ryan Works is Chair of the Bankruptcy, Insolvency & Financial Restructuring Practice, working primarily in the areas of corporate bankruptcy and insolvency and business litigation.

Mr. Works regularly represents creditors and debtors both in and out of bankruptcy, under Chapter 11 and 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. His experience includes representing businesses in the mining, retail, restaurant, transportation, technology, hotel, entertainment, real estate, and service industries. Mr. Works has represented the debtor in possession and successfully restructured several businesses. He has represented secured lenders, landlords, tenants, health care ombudsman, buyers, sellers, and other parties in interest. Mr. Works has significant experience prosecuting and defending avoidance actions, adversary cases, and related litigation and has handled various fraud cases and non-discharge matters on behalf of his clients.

In addition to his bankruptcy practice, Mr. Works is a member of the litigation department, with a focus on construction law, mechanics' lien litigation, real estate law, commercial financing disputes under the Uniform Commercial Code, partnership disputes, corporate governance matters, and general defense of local and national clients in federal and state courts.
