PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Mr. Sheets is of counsel in the Las Vegas office. His professional background includes more than 35 years of legal practice with substantial experience in the energy industry. He recently served as General Counsel of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission in Washington, DC. Mr. Sheets held the position of Senior Vice President and General Counsel of Southwest Gas Corporation for 24 years. He also served as a Senior Attorney with Texas Eastern Corporation, an interstate natural gas pipeline, and Staff Counsel at the Public Service Commission of Nevada. Early in his career, Mr. Sheets held Senior Attorney positions with Sierra Pacific Resources and Toledo Edison Company, both combination electric and gas utilities.

AREAS OF EXPERIENCE

Energy, Environmental & Natural Resource Law

As General Counsel of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Mr. Sheets provided legal advice, analysis, legislative testimony and support, and proposed policy direction. The position afforded significant exposure to all facets of renewable energy development. Mr. Sheets served as Senior Officer and General Counsel of the fifth largest stand-alone local distribution gas utility in the United States. He and his team were responsible for the corporation's legal and regulatory representation, contracts, insurance, and workers compensation.

Tax Law

Mr. Sheets served as Chairman of the Nevada Tax Commission for six years and gained a detailed familiarity with Nevada's system of taxation, and the tax issues and policies affecting local governmental entities.

Commercial & Complex Litigation

Mr. Sheets has 35 years of commercial litigation experience, trying cases as lead counsel and managing complex commercial litigation activities.

Alternative Dispute Resolution

Mr. Sheets has served as a neutral of the American Arbitration Association since 1978. Cases have included complex construction contract disputes, energy disputes and general corporate disputes.
