Kelci S. Binau is an attorney in the Gaming & Administrative Law Practice and the Business Entities & Transactions Practice at McDonald Carano. Ms. Binau serves as Vice Chair of the firm's Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Committee and Vice Chair of the Associates' Committee. She also serves on the Executive Committee of the Gaming Law Section of the State Bar of Nevada and the Board of Directors of Global Gaming Women. Her background includes serving as a Legal Extern for the Honorable Chief Judge Beesley and Judge Gregg W. Zive in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Nevada in Reno, Nevada.

Ms. Binau's clients include U.S. and international owners and operators of casinos, pari-mutuel wagering facilities, hotels and resorts, nonrestricted and restricted gaming licensees, operators of online gaming, mobile gaming, social gaming, sports betting and sportsbooks, skill-based gaming, manufacturers and distributors, service providers, travel centers, private equity firms, traditional and non-traditional investors, Native American tribes, and executives and key employees and gaming employees. She advises and represents clients through state gaming regulatory, licensing, and registration requirements including applications, Board investigations, interviews and appearances at Board and Commission public hearings. She further assists with compliance plans, transactional reorganizations and M&As, local licensing, and government affairs. She provides ongoing guidance to clients regarding communication with regulatory agencies and Boards within the gaming industry.

Ms. Binau's gaming law practice includes experience analyzing the legality of client games and platforms and researching and drafting 50-state and multistate gaming surveys concerning contests, sweepstakes, daily fantasy sports, sports wagering, and skill games. She also provides multistate regulatory research and guidance to gaming startups and leads multistate legal teams with launch initiatives and analysis of and approaches into various regulatory landscapes.

Ms. Binau provides licensing, approval and compliance assistance to companies involved in the development, management, financing, acquisition and restructuring of gaming projects in the casino and on-line gaming markets. She helps clients obtain and maintain licenses and approvals and provides assistance and guidance throughout all steps in the process, including initial application, investigation and interview, public hearing on suitability, and ongoing obligations to update regulators. She has experience with waivers or exemptions from licensing requirements on behalf of clients that do not exert the required control over the gaming enterprise.

In her corporate law practice, Ms. Binau guides companies through commercial transactions involving formation, incorporation, governance, operation, growth, and mergers and acquisitions. She has assisted clients with designing their corporate structure, domesticating, merging and converting foreign and domestic entities, and acquiring state and city business licenses. Ms. Binau's clients include publicly traded corporations, privately held businesses and startups in a wide range of industry sectors, including hospitality, entertainment, technology, education, healthcare, accounting, financial services, retail, manufacturing, and transportation.

Throughout the COVID-19 pandemic, Ms. Binau assisted entities and individuals in navigating the complex CARES Act and American Rescue Plan Act, including regulations for various government assistance programs, such as the Paycheck Protection Program.

Additionally, Ms. Binau has experience with the foundational elements of Trust and Estate Planning with an emphasis on asset protection and wealth preservation, fiduciary and beneficiary representation, foundation and tax-exempt organization initiatives, gaming trusts, and generation-skipping, gift and income tax planning.
